

COH Telehealth Webinar

Centre for Online Health CENTRE FOR HEALTH SERVICES RESEARCH

(In partnership with the Australian Telehealth Society)

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the COH Telehealth Forums will proceed each month with a special online format, which is designed to address common questions related to telehealth. The COH will partner with the Australian Telehealth Society (ATHS) to provide a monthly webinar. The webinars will include a short presentation (20-30 minutes) on a specific telehealth topic, and a Q&A panel discussion (20 minutes) involving experts from the COH and the ATHS. Participants are encouraged to send their questions to enquiries@coh.uq.edu.au and the panel members will do their best to address these.

Webinar Topic: Remote Patient Monitoring – Chronic Disease possibilities

Presented by: Michelle Wilson BNurs, Grad Cert Clinical Redesign

Michelle is a Registered Nurse with a diverse clinical experience working in Australia and the UK. Her current role at Barwon Health, Victoria is coordinating the Remote Patient Monitoring and HealthLinks teams. The majority of her career has been in cardiology and chronic disease management. Roles in these areas have included research, clinical case management and project development. Michelle has also worked for Deakin University for the past decade, in both the School of Nursing and Psychology.

The presentation will reflect the journey and learnings of the Remote Patient Monitoring program at Barwon Health. Commencing as a Proof of Concept project in 2013, the team has grown and evolved. Some of the challenges, solutions and outcomes will be discussed, as well as possibilities and future directions.

Panelists this month include:

- Marc Budge, Clinical Director, Integrated Care Services, Bendigo Health
- Kim Ford, President, Australian Telehealth Society
- Professor Anthony Smith, Director, Centre for Online Health, CHSR (Webinar Chairperson)
- Associate Professor Liam Caffery, Telehealth Technology Director, Centre for Online Health (Webinar Moderator)
